

FORM CRS – CUSTOMER RELATIONSHIP SUMMARY
 June 16, 2020

Item 1. Introduction	Portfolio Solutions, LLC is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) as an investment adviser. Brokerage and investment advisory services and fees differ, and it is important for you to understand these differences. Free and simple tools are available to research firms and financial professionals at Investor.gov/CRS, which also provides educational materials about broker-dealers, investment advisers, and investing.
Item 2. Relationships and Services	What investment services and advice can you provide me? We offer investment advisory services to retail investors, including Wealth Planning and Investment Guidance to individuals, high net worth individuals, trusts, estates, endowments, institutions, individual participants of retirement plans, pension and profit-sharing plans, charitable organizations, corporations and other businesses. Monitoring We review client accounts and positions on a continuous basis. Our Chief Investment Officer supervises the Portfolio Management staff who conduct internal daily reviews of client accounts for adherence to a client’s Asset Allocation Strategies. A financial advisor will also review a client’s specific investment goals and objectives on a periodic basis and work with a client to align them with the client’s investment strategy. Investment Authority We typically have full discretion to decide the specific securities to trade, the quantity of such securities, and the timing of securities transactions for client accounts. Certain client-imposed conditions may limit our Discretionary Authority, such as when the client prohibits transactions in specific security types. Limited Investment Offering We reserve the right to advise clients on any type of investment that we deem appropriate based on the client’s stated goals and objectives. We may also provide advice on any type of investment held in a client’s portfolio at the inception of the advisory relationship or on any investment on which the client requests advice. Account Minimums and Other Requirements Generally, we require clients to maintain a Client Relationship size of at least $500,000 for Investment Guidance with Portfolio Management services, and $750,000 for Wealth Planning with Portfolio Management. Under certain circumstances, minimum account sizes may be negotiable. More information about our services can be found on Part 2 of our Form ADV, which is available at https://adviserinfo.sec.gov/firm/summary/107774. Conversation Starters. Ask your financial professional— <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Given my financial situation, should I choose an investment advisory service? Why or why not? • How will you choose investments to recommend to me? • What is your relevant experience, including your licenses, education and other qualifications? What do these qualifications mean?
Item 3.a. Fees, Costs, Conflicts, and Standard of Conduct	A. What fees will I pay? Our standard annual fee is charged quarterly in arrears, and is 0.89% for Wealth Planning with a minimum quarterly fee of $1,675, and 0.37% for Investment Guidance with a minimum quarterly fee of $925. The fee charged is generally determined by the amount of investable assets, with discount tiers available at various higher asset levels. Under certain circumstances, fees may be negotiable. More information about our firm’s fees are included in Part 2 of Form ADV: https://adviserinfo.sec.gov/firm/summary/107774.

	In addition to our management fees, clients may incur certain charges imposed by custodians, brokers, and other third parties. Mutual funds and exchange traded funds also charge management fees, which are disclosed in a fund’s prospectus. We do not charge performance-based fees. You will pay fees and costs whether you make or lose money on your investments. Fees and costs will reduce any amount of money you make on your investments over time. Please make sure you understand what fees and costs you are paying. Conversation Starter. Ask your financial professional— <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Help me understand how these fees and costs might affect my investments. If I give you $500,000 to invest, how much will go to fees and costs, and how much will be invested for me?
Item 3.b. Fees, Costs, Conflicts, and Standard of Conduct	B. What are your legal obligations to me when acting as my investment adviser? How else does your firm make money and what conflicts of interest do you have? When we act as your investment adviser, we must act in your best interest and not put our interest ahead of yours. Below is an example of where conflicts could arise. You should understand and ask us about such conflicts because they can affect the investment advice we provide to you. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • We may receive from certain broker/dealers, at no cost, products and services enabling us to better manage and administer client accounts. The support provided may benefit us, but not our clients directly. This receipt of services may indirectly influence our choice of a broker/dealer over another broker/dealer that does not furnish similar services. Conversation Starter. Ask your financial professional— <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • How might your conflicts of interest affect me, and how will you address them? More information about conflicts of interest between us and our clients is available on Part 2 of our Form ADV, which can be found at https://adviserinfo.sec.gov/firm/summary/107774 How do your financial professionals make money? Our financial professionals receive a salary and may receive a discretionary bonus.
